Dear parents and carers

Just a quick update.

It has been lovely to see the children back after the Holidays.

Can I remind you of some key things we need to remember to keep the school and our children safe-

- If your child is unwell they should not come to school.
- If they develop a high temperature, a cough or loss of taste you should self-isolate and get a test.

Clearly these are uncertain times and we would like to ask you to update us around your keyworker status. If you previously have identified yourself as a key worker the school will already have contacted you. If you believe that you are a key worker and we have not contacted you please contact the school to let us know so that we can update our records.

This allows us to plan keyworker provision in the future if needed.

We sent out packs for some children and log in details to all children last term. Please keep these safe as they will potentially be crucial to support learning at home in the future if needed.

Thank you for your continued support and bearing with us at this time.

I have included the definition of a key worker if you are unsure of your status.

Kind regards

Craig Robertson
