Newsletter

26th September 2019

Our next event week is ....

Book Week

Find overleaf the plans for the exciting learning and activities the pupils will be taking part in for Book Week, starting on Monday 30th September. Take note of our dress up day on Thursday, get creative with your extreme reading photos and look forward to bedtime stories being read that you can share with your child. These will be added to our website at www.berrycoombeschool.co.uk. Also each class are having time at the end of the day where you can come in for a book and biscuit with your child.

Email Addresses

We are aiming to move away from sending texts as this costs the school every time they send one home. If you could let us know your email address that would be really helpful and we can also ensure that Newsletters are sent home via this so that everyone gets a copy to read. Data Collection forms will be coming out soon so you can add your email address to those. Many thanks

School Census

Next Thursday, 3rd October, it is School Census day. The menu for this day will be fish fingers and chips. All Key stage 1 children will be ordered a school dinner so you can encourage your child/ren to try school dinners. They can still bring in their packed lunch in case they decide they really don't like it.

M&M Productions

Next Monday there is a production by M&M, as parents with children in the school can tell you these performances are always loved by the children and inspire their creativity. The School pays the majority of the cost but a £2.00 contribution would help towards ensuring we can provide these learning experiences in the future.

Training from TPAT

We wanted to let you know about some Teacher Training enquiry sessions being held for Teaching Assistants and parents/carers, plus any other interested staff, to find out about training to teach through TPAT, Cornwall Teaching School and SCITT. This term they are holding 2 enquiry afternoons, held in 3 different areas that will hopefully be accessible for all. This is a chance for those interested in teaching to find out more about the different options and how the training will look over the year. It will also be an opportunity for people to find out about the qualifications needed to enter the profession, potential grants, bursaries and future career opportunities within TPAT.

The 2 dates and venues are:

8th October at Penwith College (room to be confirmed) – 2-3pm

20th November at Roche School 2-3pm

For any more information contact Kath Williams on 01208 74969

Aldi Sports stickers

Thanks for those of you who shop in Aldi we have been receiving the stickers and these are displayed on the poster in our corridor. Keep spending...

Yesella, our lovely Forestry teacher, has secured a grant from The Cornwall Gardens Trust for £200, the grant will be spent on specific specified items and we are in discussion with teachers and pupils to decide where it would be best spent.
